

Town and County.

—The Chetola for kiln-dried lumber. Ad elsewhere.

—Born to Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lewis, a baby boy.

—See ad. of Penny Brothers Great Auction Sale of town lots at Blowing Rock.

—Mrs. M. L. Gwaltney, of Taylorsville, is visiting Mrs. Dr. Little in Boone.

—Your wants, whatever they may be, in merchandises, can be gratified at Blackburns.

—Dr. S. J. Crowson and Miss Ruby Deal of Taylorsville are guests at the home of Solicitor F. A. Linney.

—Mrs. Hill Cottrell and son, Geo. of Lenoir, are spending some time at the home of Mr. Mrs. C. J. Cottrell.

—Mr. W. C. Coffey attended the annual meeting of the stockholders in the Moore cotton mill in Lenoir Tuesday.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Greene of Meat Camp, is visiting at the home of her son, Mr. R. M. Green in the village this week.

—Benjamin Dugger, of Vilas, is now a busy man moving passengers over the county in his new auto.

—Mrs. N. O. Coffey with three of her children, from Hickory, is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. John H. Norris of East Boone.

—Mr. Seay and Miss Smith, of Lynchburg, Va., who have been guests at the home of Mr. W. C. Coffey, left on their return Monday.

—Rev. W. C. Jones asks us to say that he will preach at Blowing Rock and White Springs at the usual hours next Sunday.

—Mr. Harvey Range, of Johnson City, Tenn., has been exploring this part of Watauga for some days, with a fair damsel of the same city.

—Mrs. Boyd, widow of the late Sheriff Boyd of Caldwell County, is at the Blair Hotel for a few weeks stay, hoping to recuperate her somewhat depleted health.

—Blowing Rocks Great Mid Summer Conference, promises to be the greatest event ever pulled off in Watauga. A part of the program in this paper.

—We wish to thank publicly Prof. W. L. Winkler for a bushel of choice apples he so kindly gave us Tuesday afternoon, of the Early Transparent variety.

—Miss Nona Brawley, of Moorsville, and Miss Tomlin, daughter of Mr. C. S. Tomlin, of Statesville, now at the Rock, were visitors in Boone a short while Monday.

—Mrs. Schenck, wife of a prominent stock-raiser of Limestone, Tenn., returned to her home this week, after spending some time at the home of Mr. W. T. Hayee, at Vilas.

—Sorry to hear of the very serious accident that befell Mr. Hamp Summa, of Blowing Rock, R. F. D., on last Monday. He was kicked in the face by a mule, and the report that reaches us is to the effect that he is most seriously if not fatally hurt.

—Rev. J. M. Baird, of Matney, was in to see us Monday, and told us that on Wednesday of last week the entire saw mill plant owned by Mr. M. C. Oliver, in that section, was destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of probably more than $1,000.

—In order to carry on my business, and meet my obligations. I am compelled to collect so if you owe me, I want it, I need it. If you don't bring it, I will have to send after it. Take notice.

D. J. COTTRELL.

—Mrs. Luntz Holzhouser, an estimable woman of Blowing Rock, died at her home last Saturday, and was buried the following day at the Reform church. Release on messeals, we are told, was the immediate cause of her death.

—Mrs. Mattie J. Greene took her daughter, Miss Wilmetta, to the Banner Elk Hospital, last Monday, where she will take treatment. The young lady has been in poor health for some time, and we hope to hear of her speedy recovery.

—Mr. Benjamin Jones, of Schenectady, New York, an electrical engineer, is spending a few days with his brother, the Rev. W. C. Jones, and two sisters at the Methodist parsonage. Glad to see him, and to know that he is enjoying his stay among us to the fullest extent.

—Mrs. Frank H. Wike, died at her home at Kelsey on Sunday, after a short illness, preceding her husband by only five months, to the great beyond. She was a good woman, can be truthfully said of her, and her death has caused a sadness deep in her community.

—Mr. H. S. Deal and his splendid wife, of Blowing Rock, have disposed of their holdings there and moved to Mr. Deal's old home in Alexander county. No better people than they; always found in the fore-front of every move that tended to the religious and moral uplift of that community and their leaving is a distinctive loss to that town and environs.

—Mrs. M. C. Patterson, of Durham, N. C., was a guest at the home of Prof. Roy M. Brown in East Boone, from last Saturday until today; Wednesday. Mrs. Patterson has traveled extensively, having visited many of the popular mountain resorts in this and other states, but is of the opinion that Watauga, with her magnificent scenery and balmy atmosphere easily surpasses them all.

—C. C. Carroll, of Virgil, was up Monday and reports great activities along the entire line of the Virginia-Carolina Railway through Ashe county. He tells us that Messrs Smith and Moore are working a large force on the grade between Todd and Fleetwood. He says the general consensus of opinion is that the road will be extended on into Watauga, but you know it is hard indeed to predict just what a rail road Co. will do. The prospects for the extension of the line are flattering, however.

—On Sunday morning last a little son of Mr. and Mrs. David Warren, some ten years of age, was drowned while in bathing in the Watauga River with some of his playmates. It is thought the little fellow was taken with cramps as he screamed out just before sinking the last time, that his breast hurt. His comrades gave the alarm at once, but help came too late, and the lifeless form of the unfortunate lad, was taken from the water. His parents are sorely stricken and the sympathy of all is with them.

—Mr. Cobb, the popular and genial proprietor of Green Park Hotel, and Mr. James Robinson, known to our readers as "Old Hurraygraph," a writer of national reputation, were down from the Rock Tuesday, and gave us a most pleasant call. Mr. Robinson, hearing the click of the type, could not resist from calling for a stick and copy, and for a short while did the type setting act in the most approved style regardless of hard (?) copy. The gentlemen spoke in the highest terms of our ideal town and her future possibilities.

—Clerk of the Court W. D. Farthing, aside from being a splendid official, has developed into something else—in fact he might be called an inventor. He has studied out, and now has prepared, a set of Loose Leaf Bar Dockets, which is one of the most complete things of the kind known to the members of the bar. The only expense to the county is the covers, which, if properly handled, will last for years. He has figured out that in six years these dockets will save the county $100.00. He is to be congratulated, and the county as well.

—The fall term of the A. T. S. will open Wednesday August 20. See ad. elsewhere.

—Mr. John McNeill, of Jonesboro, Tenn., is with relatives at Rutherford for a few days.

—Editor H. C. and Mrs. Martin, now at Blowing Rock, were pleasant and most encouraging callers at our office Monday.

—Our friend for many years, that venerable gentleman, Mr. William Walker, of Kelsey, died at his home Tuesday, and was buried today, Wednesday, his pastor, the Rev. W. C. Jones, conducting the funeral. Uncle William, as he was called, was a devout christian, a gentleman of the old school, and the county had no more upright citizen than he.

—Prof. Hoy Taylor, one of Watauga's brightest young men who, for the past six years has been teaching at Bisco, this State, was married on July 29, to Miss Lucy Liles, of Moren, N. C. and after spending a few days in and around Asheville, came on to Boone, arriving at the home of Mr. B. J. Council, Monday afternoon where they will remain for several days. Prof. Taylor has recently been elected to the superintendency of the graded schools at Greenville, N. C. We are indeed glad to see him again and extend to him our congratulations upon his marriage to one of North Carolina's fair daughters.

The Bob Taylor Books.

These books reflect the generous soul, the happy spirit and romantic career of the great "Apostle of Sunshine." There are two volumes. One contains all his lectures, notable speeches, love letters, humorous stories and amusing anecdotes. The other is a complete history of the man himself written by his three surviving brothers. It is a faithful portrayal of his remarkable life and career, and records in a masterly style many laughable incidents in his remarkable life. The price of the two volumes is $4.00, and they are sent postage prepaid to any parts of the U. S. at this price.
